PRICE 10

- 1 One of the greatest rarities in political ribbons, and the key piece to the set of 1860 Brady jugates. Only the second example I've had in 37 years, the previous one having been about 25 years ago. Superb near mint condition, noting for accuracy a tiny speck in the field to the right of Douglas. 19,500.
- 2 The most popular of all Lincoln ribbons, featuring the famous Cooper Union portrait by Mathew Brady, which has been known for the past 150 years as the photograph that made Lincoln President. Superb near mint. 5,950.
- 3 Superbly executed watercolor "A View of Algiers in Barbary", with American ships in the harbor facing the fortified walled city. Artist's inscription in margin identifies the United States, Java and Constellation. 14 x 22, free floated and framed 19 x 27. A couple expertly repaired tears in the blank sky, overall excellent, a wonderful piece of early naval history. 3,750.
- 4 Extremely rare early American tin locomotive "GRANT", circa late 1860's - 70's. Excellent with 95% original paint. 1,850.
- 5 Superb autographed photo Mark Twain, 4 x 6 image on larger mount 5 1/2 x 7 1/2 (sight), in beautiful custom frame. Inscribed "Truly Yours - Mark Twain - Born Nov 30, 1835 - New York, May 14/03". 4,000.
- 6 Excessively rare printed textile 16 x 20 "The Good Times Come at Last - California Races - Dedicated to the Master of the Mint by one from the Gold Country - Showing the Way to and the Way back from the Golden Regions". Border shows ships, trains, miners working their claims, fights with Indians, more. Central scene of miners with politicians and soldiers who have fled their duties at Monterey for the gold fields. The Americans are working hard and finding immense chunks of gold, while two British prigs sit at the sidelines waiting to hire laborers to do the work for them. Brown on white, excellent. 7,250.
- 7 Ship models have been a basic component of the nautical antiques field for the past century, and there are at least a couple hundred sold every year in the principal nautical auctions in the northeast. But nobody has seen one like this before. An incredible 19th century wood model of a transatlantic slaver, 21" long. Made without masts and sails so that the upper deck can lift off to expose well over 100 tiny carved slaves lying in rows on the middle deck. Looking down through the openings reveals more in the lower hold. Those of you who follow the auctions and the trade press might possibly recognize this piece from where it was totally miscataloged and given a silly estimate of a few hundred dollars. I knew I had to be there in person, so I made a trip of several hundred miles and captured the prize for $12,000 against a very disappointed phone bidder. You will probably never see another. 17,000.
- 8 Large 24 x 38 broadside for the 1880 Greenback Labor ticket of Weaver and Chambers, with a portrait of General James B. Weaver in the middle of a greenback dollar, surrounded by extensive propaganda. A couple of small holes in the upper part of the greenback and also in the word JAMES. Overall VF. Printed at the office of the New York Review, NYC. A friend of mine acquired four of these at an auction in far upstate New York. This one was reportedly the best of the lot, and the other three were immediately sold into advanced collections. I bought the final one, offered here for 5,950.
- 9 Very rare 8 1/2 six-sided Rockingham pitcher with relief molded figure "GEN TAYLOR" on horseback. 3,950.
- 10 Prior to his 1905 inauguration, Theodore Roosevelt was displeased with the medal authorized by the inaugural committee. Roosevelt made a personal request to his friend, Augustus Saint-Gaudens, the greatest sculptor in America, to design a medal with artistic merit. The result was this imposing 74 mm (3") medal, with a total of only 125 examples cast by the legendary jewelers Tiffany & Co. Superbly toned AU. 25,000.
- 11 A masterpiece of antislavery ceramics. Elaborately detailed 6" white porcelain urn with gold leaf trim. Obverse a kneeling slave in chains, his hands raised in supplication. Reverse side reads "Remember them that are in Bonds". 2,000.
- 12 A marvelous Virginia folk art cane. Large portrait Patrick Henry atop two long panels, each with four lines of finely carved raised block letters offering two of Henry's most famous quotes "Ceasar had his Brutus, Charles I his Cromwell...If this be Treason make the Most of it". "Is life so dear or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery...Give me Liberty or Give me Death". Another panel at top reads "Carved by a Johnny Reb 1899", obviously a Confederate Veteran. Beautiful contrasting colors and varnishes. 2,500.

- 15 Extremely rare medium folio Currier & Ives, 13 1/2 x 17 1/2. "Farmer Garfield Cutting a Swath to the White House". He uses a scythe marked "Honesty, Ability and Patriotism" to mow through a field of snakes - falsehood, fraud, hatred, etc. Only example I've seen, exc. 2,750.
- 16 Superb and rare autographed photo Henry Ford, deep sepia 7 x 9 1/2 with pristine signature in black fountain pen. Photographer Blackburn, Valdosta GA. 2,250.
- 17 Extremely rare large cabinet photo of Sojourner Truth with knitting and a book. With her promotional imprint and 1864 copyright, exactly as on the typically seen small size cdv. Reverse inscribed in lavender ink "Purchased of Sojourner Truth Apr 21, 1870, Washington DC, by JPB". This is only the second large format version I've seen in 37 years. Exc. 3,750.

- Daniel Phillips (corrected spelling) was a member of the 135th Pennsylvania militia regiment, and served as a landsman on the schooner Tigris at the battle at Put-in-Bay on Sept. 10. 39
- Carl Carlson's extensive research on mintages and transactions for early mint medals reported only a single example known of this medal in silver, that being the one inscribed to John Cook and permanently held in the collection of the American Numismatic Society. Another example presented to Daniel Matzenbaugher was in the legendary collection of W.W.C. Wilson, sold by Anderson Galleries in NYC in 1925. That medal has not been seen or recorded in the past 90 years, and is most likely buried in some institutional collection. The medal offered here is likely the only one that will appear during the lifetime of anyone reading this catalog. 26,000. 40

- Very rare 1961 JFK inaugural parade badge issued for the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Co. of Massachusetts. Engraved with the owners initials (P.E.T.), #71 of only 75 issued. PCAC sold medal #40 for $2500 thirteen years ago, the only other complete badge I have seen. 1,500.

They are as rare as some of the American Presidential medals, but a fraction of the price. 65mm silver medal, XF. Portraits of Duke and Duchess of Cornwall (later George V and Queen Mary). "Presented to Head Chiefs...Assembly of Indian Tribes...Calgary 1901". Complete with the rare (usually missing) silver clasp of an Indian in a canoe, and the original suspension ribbon (soiled). This particular medal was given to Shaw-Win-Na-Bi-Nais, Head Chief of the Lake of the Wood Ontario. Provenance to Spink (1981), Lucien LaRiviere (2001), and Tree Many Feathers (Bowers 2001). 3,750.
- All long time political collectors are familiar with the 1908 U-N-I-TED celluloid showing TR shaking hands with his chosen successor William Howard Taft. This excessively rare 1-3/4 cello dates from 1912 and shows Progressive and Republican voters marching together under a large US flag "For our Country U-N-I-TED" (You and I Ted). - 57 An exceptional and unique Lincoln relic. 1-1/4 gold watch charm inset with a piece of wood and engraved “Republican Convention Decatur Ill 1860 – Lincoln Rail”. Attached to a later gold filled fob as shown. Accompanied by a fine E Howard watch in a gold filled Keystone case, the inner cavette engraved “Token from Dwight Friends to Richard Price Morgan – Sept 17, 1908 His Eightieth Birthday”.
- Richard Price Morgan was general superintendent of the Chicago & Alton Railroad and founder of the city of Dwight Il. He was later chief engineer of the Pacific Railway Commission. He met Lincoln in 1853 and developed a friendship with him. He was chairman of the Republican State Convention in Decatur May 9-10, 1860, later recounting his experiences in a 1909 address. At one point during the convention Lincoln was presented with several rails which he identified as identical to those he used to split. The delegates and visitors proceeded to cut the rails into souvenirs, one of them eventually finding its way into this gold charm. Morgan’s home of Livingston County made a gavel from another piece.
- Accompanied by biographical info on Morgan and a copy of his 1909 address in Pontiac Il titled “Lincoln at the Decatur Convention”. At that address Morgan displayed the aforementioned gavel from Livingston County. The Lincoln Rail charm is in perfect condition. The later presentation watch is not running and presently has a broken crystal, which I will hopefully replace before this catalog is mailed. The value of this lot lies with the rail charm of course, the watch and paperwork serving mainly to connect the charm to its prominent owner. 7,750.

I first saw one of these when I purchased the Shurko collection 30 years ago – that example has remained since then in a major New England collection. Another example was sold in London in 2007 for about $13,000 (plus a buyer premium?). This one is in gorgeous condition, lacking only two of the 37 screws and nuts securing the outer perimeter. - 232 Fine WWI Croix de Guerre certificate 15 x 19 with original shoulder braid and medal with palm, awarded to Jewish-American PFC Joseph Finkelstein. A dozen additional medals including WWI Victory, Jewish War Veterans, NY WWI service, VFW with Washington & Lincoln, NY Conspicuous Service, Military Order of the World War, others. Additional shoulder patches and enamel pin 27th Division Assn., JWV insignia, more. Wear to a couple of the ribbons, otherwise VF. 500.
- 233 One of the truly great WWII posters - This is Nazi Brutality - Massacre at Lidice - by Ben Shahn. Full sheet 28 x 38, exc. 350.
- 234 Single page (blank reverse) music sheet "Major Andre's Complaint", G.E. Blake, Philadelphia. Lyrics about his wife (?) Delia's loss and pain as "her wretched Andre dies". Light foxing, small loss upper left corner. 375.
- 235 Magnificent condition polished faux burl snuffbox, view of Vendome column and hundreds of words of text about it. 500.
- 236 Papier mache snuffbox with painted portrait Lord Howe, victor over the French on the Glorious 1st of June. Exc. 500.
- 237 Excellent 18" carved cedar totem, 1920's - 30's. This is really nice. 600.
- 238 The only gold quartz cane I have seen from Virginia City. 1" oval pieces of quartz on both the end and knuckle. Finely engraved gold handle "Presented to J.M. Miner by James Halligan - Virginia City Nev - Dec. 3, 1874". Underside of handle with additional inscription "Presented by Miner to Neff". Beautiful condition, the only flaw being a couple small cracks in the quartz. 6,750.
- 239 Most unusual 3" carved ivory spice shaker that resembles an oil lamp. The top is carved with mountains, cactus, portraits of Annie Oakley and Buffalo Bill and "To Emma with Deep Gratitude". 1,200.
- 240 Fine large "sandpaper" drawing in period frame 22 x 26. Image taken from Arthur Fitzwilliam Tait's famous painting The Prairie Hunter, which was also used for a Currier & Ives print. Exc. 975.
- 241 Scarce Day's Patent cane gun with original integral shoulder stock. Barred unscrews at breech, cocked by pulling down the percussion underhammer, which also extends the trigger. Wear to varnish on stock, otherwise fine. 1,650.
- 242 Personal calling card of "WF Cody - Nebraska" inscribed and signed by him "Miners Opera House - Admit Mr. Ferrell & Party - WF Cody". 900.
- 243 10-1/4 Texian Campaigne soup plate in the scarce green color, perfect. 500.
- 244 Scarce 10 x 13 sign printed on fabric to last outdoors - Indian Reservation - Intoxicating Liquor - Possession or Sale to Indians Forbidden - 1897 - Cato Sells - Commissioner of Indian Affairs". Mint condition in nice custom frame (not shown). 475.
- 245 Massive 20-1/2 knife with 14-1/2 blade, stag grip, brass guard. Unusual heart cut out 2-1/2 forward of guard. Stamped S & J Kitchen, Sheffield. Owners name "J Duxbury" engraved on the wide brass floral decorated band. The company was in business through WWII, but their later production knives were dated next to the name. I'm guessing this is late 19th/early 20th cent. 750.
- 246 Very rare set of six cartes de visite of the Northfield outlaws, two with backmarks of A.F. Burnham, Faribault MN. Jim Younger, Bill Chadwell, Bob Younger, Clel Miller (creased), Cole Younger, Charlie Pitts. The catalog photos came out dark - actual images lighter. Some soiling, some fading, minor edge wear to two. A great group. 4,750.

- 247 Previously unrecorded 96 pg. illustrated history of Jesse and Frank James, published in Chicago circa 1882 and printed in Swedish for the large immigrant farmer population in Wisconsin and Minnesota. No mention of this book has been found in any library or on any book search website. Light wear and minor edge chipping to the pink covers. Contents fine, covers VG. 1,200.
- 248 Large 14" hand painted porcelain charger by J. Pouyat, Limoges, artist inscribed "Black Bird - Ogallala Sioux". He took part in the Sioux War of 1876-77, surrendering with Crazy Horse. At the turn of the century, he joined Colonel Cummings Wild West Show, participated in the Pan American Expo Indian Congress, and then went to England with Buffalo Bill. The hide war shirt he is wearing sold at Sotheby's for a phenomenal $2.66 million in 2011. 1,250.
- 249 Unique 7-1/2 x 10-1/2 slate with pastel portrait Chief Thunder Cloud. To the left of the portrait is a six line inscription to the recipient from the artist (Sanford Bowes). Protected by a glass plate secured in a thin wood edging by decorative blue paper. This blue paper has some wear, otherwise the piece is near mint. Accompanied by historical notes on Thunder Cloud. 400.
- 250 Hard cover book John Ermine of the Yellowstone by Frederic Remington (MacMillan 1902), the flyleaf inscribed "To My Friend Collin Armstrong - Frederic Remington - 1903". White stamped brown cloth boards, VF. 1,450.
- 251 Unique California gold rush cane. The knob is ivory with a nugget that was either pounded out to flatten it, or poured in a crude mold. Brass band below knob engraved "Sutters Mill California 1854". 2,950.
- 252 20" catlinite tomahawk (two pieces) with fine old deep red color, augered holes in blade. Circa 1850's - 60's. Superb condition, missing only the small (replaceable) wooden mouthpiece. Old museum markings inked on haft. A beauty. 2,500.
- 253 Great 14-1/2 whalers knife, the carved pan bone handle with deep incised decoration and "Beluga 1871", likely a reference to the particular whale used for the handle. Exc. 1,350.
- 254 Huge 11-1/2 whalebone carving of a seated Eskimo looking upwards. Cuffs and edge of jacket inlaid with tiny discs of baleen (4 of the 34 pieces are missing). Early 20th century, excellent condition. 1,250.
- 255 Heavy brass and steel card trimmer, marked on the shears "R Heinisch - Inventor - Newark NJ". Exc. 1,350.
- 256 Late addition to finish the page, purchased just three days ago. Incredibly rare 3-1/2 x 6 flyer issued just four days after the Boston Tea Party, Dec. 20, 1773. The author and printer would obviously not identify themselves, so the comments are offered by a fictitious sailor "Tom Bowline". Warns of arrival of East India Company ship laden with tea and of the loss of Liberty and ruin to Trade if the cargo is allowed to be off-loaded. Exceedingly rare, probably only 4-5 examples known. This particular copy was a duplicate from the New York Historical Society, sold by Goodspeeds in 1958, subsequently sold in the landmark Streeter auction, Parke-Bernet, New York, April 19, 1967. Minor touch of foxing not worth mentioning, near mint, framed. 8,250.
